April 4, 2019

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We are excited that, beginning in mid-April, Tsawwassen First Nation Elder Loretta Williams will be spending several weeks with us teaching our students about weaving and the importance of cedar to the Western Coastal Indigenous culture and way of life.

Ms. Williams is an experienced weaver and has been weaving professionally since 2004. Her artwork is a combination of traditional and contemporary styles using various mediums including wool, pine needles, beads and cedar. Each class will participate in their own hands-on cedar-weaving workshop with Ms. Williams, where students will learn not only about weaving but will also weave a bracelet of their own.

Due to contributions from both the Sunshine Hills PAC, and the Indigenous Education department of the Delta School District, the cost of this workshop, and the associated materials, is only $6 per student.

Please complete the form below and return it with payment to your classroom teacher by Wednesday, April 10th.

Individual teachers will be letting their classes know when they are scheduled to attend their weaving session.

Sincerely,

Mme Greenhalgh
Principal/Directrice
