Administration report- Keri/John

- Introduction to John! Welcome to Sunshine Hills.
- January was a busy month!
  1. Amazing performance by the Seaquam band and choir.
  2. Email sent to Keri about a group called the Myrtle sisters. They are a local group that performs for the school district. They will be doing a performance based around embracing yourself and others.
  3. Pro-D Day on Jan 26th
    - Steven Clay was in attendance. Talking about STEM stretch / STEM mastery.
    - Carnival to be celebrated at SH.
  4. Early French Immersion is open. Lots of applications. SH will be able to have 2 french K kindergarten classes next school year.
  5. Kindergarten registration opens Feb 12-23rd. Info is on SH website. Feb 20-23rd will be in person registration. Interpreters available if needed.
  6. Basketball began the week of 29th. Tournament at North Delta High School Feb 23rd.
  7. Talent Show-
    - Grades 3-7
    - 90 children auditioned.
    - PAC discussed the possibility of different prizes for the kids.
  8. SH library has been working with Fraser Valley library for grades 4-5. They are participating in the reading link challenge. It entails children reading books and then completing quizzes and other documents to help with reading comprehension and remembering what they read and understanding it.
  9. Lots of applications for STEM MAstery!

10. Local sports group having been visiting Sunshine Hills.
  - North Delta lacrosse - Thank you Madame. Pool and her husband for helping out. SH is looking into replacing current lacrosse sticks with proper ones.
  - North Delta soccer - ran a skills based program. Lots of excitement from the younger children.
  - John and PAC discussed how it is nice to have the local sports groups and schools working together.

11. Spring concert (grades 6/7)- Date to be announced.

Question to administration - Will seamless K program run next year? Yes it will be running. Children with spots right now will keep them. More information to come later.

Report from Candace -

1. Family Fun night
  - Looking for chairs to sit on the committee.
  - Also need volunteers to help / Kim is stepping back this year.
  - If no volunteers by the next PAC meeting , it may not happen. Keri will send an email out to parents asking for help.
2. Staff Appreciation - Date TBA
  - PAC decided Monica to run it again this year.
  - Pac voted on a hybrid model - food catered and dessert prepared by PAC/volunteers.
  - Monica to decide the menu.
  - Budget will be $1000.00.
  - Date TBA next PAC meeting.

DPAC Report - Angela

See attached notes

CPF Report- Carolina (see attached notes with website links)

- Branch Chapter Update - info about the New Teacher, Footprints, French Immersion Week, Volunteer Appreciation, French for Parents Course etc.

- All members should be getting this monthly update via email.
- CPF could fully or partially finance field trips, events, etc. It is suggested that the teachers reach out to CPF via the school rep or directly to the chapter.
- It is also French Immersion celebration week from February 4-10th
- CPF in the SHE website: It would be nice to have a designated area where parents and teachers can find resources on the school website ( Keri noted and will add to the SH staff meeting agenda)
- It was also discussed that there is support to help children make the decision to continue with french immersion after elementary school.

Budget Report - Joseph

Hot lunches

- Hot lunches were discussed with PAC members.
- Big part of SH fundraising. Maybe there is a way to look into different kids to fundraise.
- Last year more money was made due to the fact it was every week.
- PAC talked about garbage from hot lunches and way to help reduce waste.
- Discussed litterless lunches ( Keri will add it to peak at the week report)

Grade 7 farewell committee - Erin

- Vote in terms of reference document
Motion to vote - Candance / 2nd Monica.
Vote - unanimous
- Invite to anyone interested. Terry and Lee came forward

- No one else came forward. Terry and Lee to be Co-Chairs.
- They will send an update after the first meeting.

Any other business-

- Codes of conduct to be reviewed and signed.
- Amendments to be made to the constitution. Will happen over the next few months.
- Kerri and Lee did soft launch on farwell committee. They are waiting on replies from parents. They will be holding training nights for fundraisers to parents and students. They met with the yearbook committee about the class of 2025.

Meeting adjourned 8:17pm.

Next PAC meeting TBA
